Assessment

Component	Weight
Attendance	10%
Participation	10%
In-Class Case Analyses	20%
Group Project	60%
total	100%

- Attendance (10%)
  - One point will be deducted for each half-day of absence, regardless of reason. Students who miss more than two full days (four half-days) must retake the course.
- Participation (10%)
  - Engagement: Students are expected to be prepared, engaged, and contribute constructively to class dialogue.
- In-class Case Analysis (20%)
  - Each unit includes a graded, in-class case analysis and discussion. Students are expected to:
    - Actively participate in group discussion and class-wide debate.
    - Demonstrate thoughtful application of course frameworks to real-world scenarios.
    - Grading will consider both participation frequency and the depth and insightfulness of contributions
- Group Project (60%)

  Students will form groups of 3–4 members to complete a group project consists of three stages: proposal, presentation and final report.
